With tears welling in her eyes, Shakiera Harris looked down at a collection of flowers set on the corner of Saw Mill Drive, then looked toward a pair of fresh skid marks on Albany Bush Road.

Bright orange markings covered the roadway just a short distance away, where two Fonda-Fultonville middle school students were fatally injured when a car struck the go-cart they were riding Sunday evening from a friend's house on Saw Mill Drive.

Witnesses identified the two victims as Ryan Hart of Mohawk and Richard Carpenter of Fort Hunter.

Investigators from the Montgomery County Sheriff's Department declined to identify or confirm the identities of the victims Monday other than indicating they were both 15 years old. But Harris, along with several
