

Face-lift technique gaining in popularity

PAGE D1

THE DAILY GAZETTE

THE LOCALLY OWNED VOICE OF THE CAPITAL REGION

SCHENECTADY
ALBANY COUNTY
EDITION

TODAY:
Partly sunn
High 79/Lo
PAGE A10

SCHENECTADY, NY ♦ 50 CENTS

TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 2006

WWW.DAILYGAZETT

MOHAWK

Friends mourn teens killed riding go-cart

BY JUSTIN MASON
Gazette Reporter

With tears welling in her eyes, Shakiera Harris looked down at a collection of flowers set on the corner of Saw Mill Drive, then looked toward a pair of fresh skid marks on Albany Bush Road.

Bright orange markings covered the roadway just a short distance away, where two Fonda-Fultonville middle school students were fatally injured when a car struck the go-cart they were riding Sunday evening from a friend's house on Saw Mill Drive.

Witnesses identified the two victims as Ryan Hart of Mohawk and Richard Carpenter of Fort Hunter.

Investigators from the Montgomery County Sheriff's Department declined to identify or confirm the identities of the victims Monday other than indicating they were both 15 years old. But Harris, along with several
See CRASH, page A3

HANS PENNINK/GAZETTE PHOTOGRAPHER

From left, Courtney Coupas, Dominique Boomhower and Amanda Green gather at a roadside memorial Monday to mourn the loss of their friends, Ryan Hart and Richard Carpenter, both 15, who were killed while riding a go-cart on Sunday.

Waiting for Alberto

SCHENECTADY

Child's injuries shock police

Couple allegedly beat girl, 4, put bleach in her eye

BY MICHAEL LAMENDOLA
Gazette Reporter

